Great Storm Raging Throughout East

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26.—The worst storm for years is raging along the Atlantic coast. In this city snow has fallen 22 inches deep on the level and it has drifted in places to a height of ten feet. Railroad service is disrupted and trains throughout the country are stalled.

Three persons are known to have died here today as a result of exposure to the cold.

BOSTON, Dec. 26.—A disastrous storm is ranging throughout the New England States, this city seeming to be the storm center. The electric wires are down and the railroads are blocked. Millions of dollars' worth of property has been damaged.

Many towns and cities along the coast are in darkness, the lighting system being rendered useless through broken poles and tangled wires.

ZELAYA ESCAPES ON MEXICAN GUNBOAT

CITY OF MEXICO, Dec. 26.—Ex-President Zelaya of Nicaragua, is now a refugee in this country, having arrived at Salina Cruz tonight as a passenger aboard the Mexican gunboat General Guerrero.

MANAGUA, Dec. 26.—Ernesto Martinez, who had been the minister of finance for Nicaragua under the Zelaya regime, was arrested today by President Madriz's orders. The charge against the former custodian of the country's funds is that he misappropriated a large portion of the money for his own use.

CLAD HE HAS GONE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The flight of ex-President Zelaya from Nicaragua in some quarters here is regarded as a relief, his departure from the scene of the past trouble being regarded as an assurance that America is not to become further embroiled in the Central American trouble.

SPANISH COAST STORM SWEEP

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Dec. 26.—Twenty villages have been inundated as a result of the great storm that is raging in the Bay of Biscay, and several steamers have been driven ashore on the north coast of Spain.

MADRID, Dec. 26.—The latest advices from the north are to the effect that the storm is abating and that conditions in the flooded district are improving.

Many of the coasting vessels are missing and many deaths from drowning have been reported.

FITZSIMMONS LOSES

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Dec. 26.—Bob Fitzsimmons, the one-time heavyweight champion of the world, was knocked out by Lang in the twelfth round of a fight tonight for the championship of Australia. Fitzsimmons is forty-seven years old and has been knocked out only twice before in his thirty years of fighting. Both his former defeats were by Jeffries in 1899 and in 1902.

SUBSIDY BILL LOOKS GOOD

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—It is now believed that a ship subsidy bill is in sight which can pass Congress and meet the approval of the President. The provisions of the bill have not yet been made public and will not be until Jan. 4, when the bill will be introduced in the House. Representative Humphrey, the father of the bill, submitted several proposed amendments to the President for his consideration. It is understood that the amendments meet with the approval of the President.

WATERFRONT NOTES

TOMORROW the interisland steamer Likelike is scheduled to sail for Honolulu, taking general lines of cargo. The vessel will sail at 5 o'clock in the evening.

THERE IS a shipment of oil destined for Honolulu by the American steamer Lansing, which is reported to have sailed from Port San Luis on Christmas day.

A WIRELESS report received from San Francisco is to the effect that the Pacific Mail liner Korea arrived at that port on December 26th. The vessel sailed from here on December 23.

AFTER HOVERING off the port of Hilo for a couple of days the bark Saint Katherine came alongside her berth and commenced the discharge of a shipment of general cargo brought down from San Francisco.

THERE IS a good sized cargo destined for Kaula ports to leave Honolulu this evening by the interisland steamer Nohau. The vessel is scheduled to depart for the Garden Islands at 5 o'clock.

TO REPLACE vacancies caused in the light staff at the customs caused by the promotion of several members, L. B. Reeves has been appointed to the service and has assumed his duties. Mr. Reeves has been on the eligible list for some time past.

THE INTER-ISLAND steamer Iwalei has been placed on the berth to sail for Mahukona and Kawahae at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. This vessel will pick up a shipment of cattle at the Hawaii port, a part of the consignment being left at Molokai and the remainder being brought to Honolulu.

EMIL JOHNSON has gone to Hilo to accept the position of purser on the interisland steamer Kaula. Mr. Johnson is a young man, not yet entitled to the privilege of casting his ballot, but is making rapid strides in his line of work. He began as assistant freight clerk on the Mauna Kea about a month ago.

IT IS EXPECTED that the Portland and Asiatic freighter Sella, flying the Norwegian flag, will not be detained here over twenty-four hours. This steamer, bringing about fifteen hundred tons of general cargo from Oriental ports and is expected to arrive at Honolulu by H. Hackfeld & Co., her agents, this afternoon or tomorrow morning.

THE CHARTERED steamer Hyades, which has been operated by the Matson Navigation Company for some months past, is reported to sail from Seattle for Honolulu and other Hawaiian island ports on or about January 4. The Hyades will bring down a large general cargo, including a quantity of lumber. A report had prevailed on the coast that the Matson Navigation company contract with the owners of the Hyades had expired and that the steamer would be taken off the Puget Sound-Honolulu run. The length of time that the vessel will continue in the service has not been stated.

IN ADDITION to a large shipment of sundries the Matson Navigation liner
